Red Card Player or Ejected Coach:

1. Red Card / ejection suspensions - the individual is suspended for the remainder of the current match and the next scheduled match.
2. Upon receiving a second red card / ejection during a tracking period —suspension is served in the next two scheduled matches.
3. Upon receiving a third red card / ejection during a tracking period, the individual will be suspended immediately for 10 months from all SCYSA activities pending a hearing.
4. Red Card / ejection suspensions are to be served in the “competition” in which they were assigned.
However, a suspension assigned in:
 - a league can not be served in another league, unless a player transfers. (Ex. SCSCCL suspensions cannot be served in a Premier League match.)
 - the last league match, and not served during league play, shall be served in the next scheduled league or state cup match, whichever comes first.
 - the last tournament match, and not served during that tournament, shall be served in the next scheduled league, state cup match, or Regional/National competition whichever comes first.
5. Any league or tournament suspensions not served from August 1 through July 31 will carry over to the first scheduled league match of the next tracking period. (No matter which club he/she played/is playing for.)
6. Any state cup suspensions not served will carry over to the first scheduled league match which begins in the period of August 1 through January 31 and the first state cup match.

Note: Fall tracking period is August 1 through January 31; spring tracking period is February 1 through July 31.
